

TCM HOLISTIC ACUPUNCTURE...CHINESE DIAGNOSIS

The initial Chinese diagnosis procedure is very important in TCM Holistic Acupuncture. Each patient is treated as an individual with a unique physiology, psychology, personality and history. Each of us has a unique story to tell, and individual imbalances and blockages.

During a Chinese diagnosis we look at all aspects of your holistic being...and look for the imbalances in your personal biological computer. We take in to consideration all aspects of you holistic being (your personal biological computer) to find where your specific mini computer imbalances and blockages are located-and why. In Chinese diagnosis your wrist pulses and tongue will be examined for specific signs, as will your presence, brightness of eyes, skin, hair, posture, tone of voice, and energy, and you will be asked about your past medical history, nutritional status, menstrual cycle, emotional balance, work situation, exercise and joy de vivre etc..

In TCM acupuncture Chinese diagnosis we do not treat the Western named disease symptom group, we actually treat the unique set of imbalance and blockages which give rise to your personal symptoms. The root cause.

The meticulous depth of a Chinese diagnosis carried out by a TCM consultant will enable an accurate diagnosis of the state of your biological computer, where your imbalance lies, and why.

Once a Chinese diagnosis has revealed the unique imbalances and blockages in your personal biological computer, a precise prescription of treatment points will be selected. These are designed to re-establish communication between all your body systems (mini computers), and upgrade your software files. This will have the effect of facilitating your natural ability to return to homeostasis, and perfect health and vibrancy. Chinese diagnosis is vastly superior to Western Medical diagnosis, as it gets to the energetic root cause of the malfunction of your biological computer...your magical body.
